Dedication

Although she possesses that dignity which is a part of every great teacher, her warmth of personality has been constantly felt by students and teachers. She is not pious, but full of piety, and unconsciously wields moral force because she is a noble woman through and through.

In recognition of these great qualities and her years of faithful teaching, we affectionately dedicate this issue of ELBALA to Miss Zadie Rowe.

ELBA CITY SCHOOLS
ELBA, ALABAMA

To The Students:

In this modern day, we think of quality education and we like to think the students of the Elba School are receiving the things that go to give them the qualities they will need in meeting their future.

With a well trained faculty, a broad curriculum, a student body alert and willing to take advantage of the educational opportunities that are theirs, I am sure the quality of education of our school is superior.

With this educational background, we will be expecting the students of our school to assume the roles of leadership in all phases of our modern society.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. S. J. Casey

MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS . . .

May this book of recorded memories be one of your precious possessions. It is our fond wish that you may be able to relive many happy associations and experiences of our years in Elba High through the pages of this volume of the ELBALA. We shall feel abundantly rewarded for our many hours of work in presenting this book to you if it is the means of recalling to your minds all that makes up our beloved Alma Mater.
